

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Randolph Williams,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals Nos. A-13753
A-13784

Order

Date of Order: 3/18/2021

Trial Court Case No. 1HA-12-00071CR

The appeals in A-13753 and A-13784 both involve Randolph Williams, and arise from the same underlying superior court case. One case was filed as a sentence appeal, and the other filed as a merit appeal. Because Williams is the appellant in both cases, and because the issues in both appeals arise from the same underlying case, this Court requests the parties show cause as to why these two appeals should not be consolidated for consideration and decision and, in part, briefing. The Court recognizes that the Appellant's sentencing memo has already been filed in A-13753 (the sentencing case), and that the Appellee's sentencing memo is currently overdue.

IT IS ORDERED, SUA SPONTE:

The parties shall file a response to this Order on or before 3/31/2021, addressing why the Court should not consolidate these appeals.

Entered under the authority of Chief Judge Allard.
